The Third International Congress of Coptic Studies in Warsaw

FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT

The Board of the I.A.C.S. plans to organize the IIIrd International Congress of Coptic Studies in Warsaw, 23-28 August 1984.

The program will include the following activities:

1. Opening and closing ceremonies.
2. General sessions and "groups of interest" meetings, during which papers of various size are going to be presented:
Each normal paper should be presented no longer then 20 minutes.
Short announcements should be presented no longer then 10 minutes.
Archaeological reports should be presented no longer then 30 minutes.
There is the possibility to project 36 x 24 mm. slides and to use an epidiascope.
3. Visit to Faras Gallery in Warsaw National Museum and a special presentation of Coptic Art in Polish collections.
4. Excursion to Zelazowa Wola, the birthplace of Frederic Chopin, including a piano concert.
5. Sightseeing of Warsaw, including visits to: Warsaw Royal Castle, Palaces in Lazienki and in Wilanow.

Accommodation of the participants will be at Hotel Europejski (Ist class). The organisers hope to have some limited amount of places in cheaper hotels and in university lodgings. The participants who would like to have cheaper accommodation are asked to indicate this in the form.

The form to be filled and sent back is enclosed.
